Cortex XSOAR: Engineering Security Automation Solutions

CODE:	LENGTH:	PRICE:
EDU-PAN-380	32 Hours (4 days)	$3,995.00

Description

The Palo Alto Networks Cortex XSOAR: Engineering Security Automation Solutions course is a four-day instructor-led training with a blend of lectures and hands-on labs. This training will enable students to use Cortex XSOAR to: • Conduct incident investigation and response activities on a phishing campaign • Create custom dashboards and generate reports • Install multiple engines and configure a load balancing group • Use built-in and external integrations to ingest incidents and automate security processes • Plan and implement an automation use case by building playbooks and automation scripts

Objectives

- Successful completion of this four-day, instructor-led course should enable students
- to integrate their existing security tools with Cortex XSOAR to streamline security
- processes, accelerate security outcomes, and automate manual security-oriented
- tasks.

Audience

- SOC / SIEM / Automation Engineers
- MSSPs and Service Delivery Partners working with XSOAR

Prerequisites

Participants should have a basic understanding of:
