Description

Register Now - Format: Self-Paced - Length: 6 Hours Overview:

This VMware Certification Exam Prep delivers an affordable and structured way to study and prepare for your vSphere 6 Foundations Exam (exam number: 2V0-620). This Exam Prep is taught by top VMware instructors and provides a comprehensive, focused, objective-by-objective review of exam content. And because this Exam Prep is presented through streamed video, you can study and prepare at your own pace.

This Exam Prep grants you access to a time-saving and methodical study plan designed to let you review exam topics and identify and close knowledge gaps – a powerful way to build both your knowledge and your confidence before taking your VMware Certification exam.

Features

- Taught by top VMware instructors with specific knowledge related to exam content.
- A comprehensive and detailed review of actual exam objectives covered in the real exam.
- Review of objectives, study tips, plus advice on how to avoid common mistakes and hints on additional study resources.
- You can stream the videos, allowing you to prepare at your own pace, wherever you may be.
- Pause, fast-forward, rewind and re-watch capabilities let you take full advantage of the content most important to you.
- Sample questions based on the actual exam objectives.

Benefits

- Save time and improve your course of study with an affordable, structured approach.
- Build confidence in your ability to pass the exam.
- Prepare efficiently – wherever and whenever you want.
- Identify and close any gaps in your knowledge.

Important Information

- This Exam Prep is a fast-paced comprehensive review of the exam objectives and is an excellent way to prepare to take the exam, however this course is a supplementary review and not intended to be a substitute for training. If you need or require training, we strongly recommend that you take one of VMware's high-quality training courses (available in On Demand and Instructor-led formats).
- Exam Preps do not meet or fulfill the course requirement required for VMware Certification.
